Do you want to challenge yourself to move out of your comfort zone?

If you are a collaborative, creative and learner focused Film and Media specialist committed to meeting the needs of a diverse group of learners then please apply to Nexus International School, Putrajaya. We are looking for a Media and Film specialist with at least three years teaching experience. We teach AS level Media in years 10 and 11 and IBDP Film in years 12 and 13 and both levels are popular choices for the learners.

Experience of teaching IB Film Studies is desirable. GCSE/A level experience would be also useful.

This is an exciting opportunity to lead film and contribute to a creative and collaborative Arts team committed to meeting the needs of a diverse group of learners. The current teacher also teaches a small amount of Y7-9 Drama and a second subject - ICT, Drama or Music would be an advantage but is not essential. We have a well resourced Film and Theatre department with a Theatre and a Media technician.

As an Apple Distinguished School we expect all teachers to use technology in a transformative way to enhance learning. We are also committed to developing personalised learning so that all learners, given their individual gifts and talents, are challenged and make progress.

Nexus is a rapidly developing innovative school in Putrajaya, near Kuala Lumpur in Malaysia. Established in 2008, we currently enrol 700+ students from Early Years to Year 13 who learn through the IPC, IGCSE and IBDP curricula. We have an inclusive admissions policy and you can expect to teach learners with learning and language needs as well as exceptionally academic and talented children.

We provide a professionally stimulating and collaborative, well-resourced working environment. A competitive salary and benefits package with on-going professional development opportunities.

To apply, send full CV and detailed letter of application, addressing the job description and including names and contact details for three referees (one being your current Headteacher/Principal) to <https://goo.gl/vlGY8q>

All candidates will be contacted in the first instance by the HOD for an informal chat, short listed candidates will be expected to provide a 20 mins youtube or vimeo video of themselves teaching a current class. (This will be for internal viewing only)
