Language and Learning Support Teacher/Leader

Are you driven to create transformative educational experiences that focus on active learning? Do you want to challenge yourself to move out of your comfort zone?

If you are a collaborative, creative and learner focused Special Needs or EAL specialist committed to meeting the needs of a diverse group of learners then please apply to Nexus International School, Putrajaya.

Nexus is a rapidly developing innovative school in Putrajaya, near Kuala Lumpur in Malaysia. Established in 2008, we currently enrol 700+ students from Early Years to Year 13 who learn through the IPC, IGCSE and IBDP curricula. We provide a professionally stimulating and collaborative, well-resourced working environment committed to developing personalised learning so that all learners, given their individual gifts and talents, are challenged and make progress.

Taylor's Group offers a competitive salary and benefits package with on-going professional development opportunities.

We are seeking a collaborative, experienced teacher/leader to join or lead our team of specialist SEN, EAL and G&T teachers. Experience of using a battery of diagnostic tests and assessing for exam provisions are essential skills.

The school is committed to ensuring that all teachers and classrooms at Nexus are inclusive in their classroom practice and to facilitate this specialists work alongside mainstream teachers to support lesson planning and input ideas regarding strategies that will enable all learners to make progress. The specialist team co-teach with mainstream teachers to deliver differentiated materials and provide support for all learners with learning needs in the classroom (G&T, EAL, SEN).

The person will be expected to:

1. Prioritise the development of positive, trusting relationships with learners, parents and other professionals in order to form genuine partnerships and work together towards meeting outcomes.
2. Empower our colleagues to take responsibility for learners with SEN by up-skilling them to remove barriers to learning through delivering professional development,
3. Promote inclusive high-quality teaching as the first step towards meeting the needs of learners with or without Special Education Needs.
4. Support the implementation of a more personalised and relevant approach to the curriculum for identified learners, based on their individual needs.
5. Model high expectations and aspirations for all learners and challenge limiting assumptions about children's capacity to learn.

As an Apple Distinguished School we expect all teachers to use technology in a transformative way to enhance learning.

Closing date: 01 October Midnight GMT

For further details please refer to our website www.nexus.edu.my. To apply, send full CV and detailed letter of application, addressing the job description and including names and contact details for three referees (one being your current Headteacher/Principal) to principal@nexus.edu.my Early applications will be considered and interviews will take place from end Sept.

Initial call for interview via skype/facetime will be in the following week. All candidates who are short listed will be expected to provide a 20 mins youtube or vimeo video of themselves teaching a current class. (This will be for internal viewing only if privacy is set to 'unlisted')
