Are you driven to create transformative educational experiences that focus on active learning? Do you want to challenge yourself to move out of your comfort zone?

If you are a collaborative, creative and learner focused Music specialist committed to meeting the needs of a diverse group of learners then please apply to Nexus International School, Putrajaya. We are looking for a learner focused Secondary Music specialist with at least three years teaching experience. Knowledge of IGCSE is desirable plus a second subject - ICT, Drama or Film would be an advantage but is not essential. The department consists of three full time teachers and several peripatetic instrumental musicians. It is exceptionally well resourced with a wide range and number of instruments and much technology equipment. The school has a 450 seat theatre, a suite of music practice rooms and a recording studio. All Music teachers are expected to lead Concerts and Musical shows throughout the year and work closely with other staff to support a plethora of whole school learner performances.

Nexus is an Apple 1:1 school that is committed to personalised learning. Interest and skill in meeting the needs of diverse learners using AfL strategies and technology is expected and knowledge of learners of languages other than English is desirable. As an Apple Distinguished School we expect all teachers to use technology in a transformative way to enhance learning. We are also committed to developing personalised learning so that all learners, given their individual gifts and talents, are challenged and make progress.

Nexus is a rapidly developing innovative school in Putrajaya, near Kuala Lumpur in Malaysia. Established in 2008, we currently enrol 700+ students from Early Years to Year 13 who learn through the IPC, IGCSE and IBDP curricula. We have an inclusive admissions policy and you can expect to teach learners with learning and language needs as well as exceptionally academic and talented children.

We provide a professionally stimulating and collaborative, well-resourced working environment. A competitive salary and benefits package with on-going professional development opportunities.

To apply, send full CV and detailed letter of application, addressing the job description and including names and contact details for three referees (one being your current Headteacher/Principal) to <https://goo.gl/vlGY8q>

All candidates will be contacted in the first instance by the HOD for an informal chat, short listed candidates will be expected to provide a 20 mins youtube or vimeo video of themselves teaching a current class. (This will be for internal viewing only)
