

SENSATIONAL! – YEAR 1

---

Websites

---

www.philtulga.com/Peter.html#

Phil Tulga provides online resources for teaching music across the curriculum. (You will need the latest version of QuickTime to access the samples).

www.kididdles.com/lyrics/i030.html

KIDiddles offers an excellent online collection of songs. The link takes you to a version of I see the moon. Use the search box to find lots more songs on 'see', 'listen' and 'hear'.

www.mrsjonesroom.com/songs/senses.html

Mrs Jones is a website of teacher resources, featuring this simple and easy-to-learn senses song, to the rhythm of Old MacDonald.

www.vam.ac.uk/moc/collections/toys/optical\_toys/zoetrope/index.html

The Victoria & Albert Museum of Childhood website has some excellent resources on toys and games from different historical periods.

<http://plasq.com/products/comiclfe/>

Comic Life is an easy-to-use presentation tool which allows you to import photographs and label them using drag-and-drop speech and thought bubbles.

---

Videos

---

www.youtube.com/watch?v=yD0ovANHdqQ

YouTube hosts this simple demonstration of a thaumatrope.

www.youtube.com/watch?v=wHdpzDluyhs

YouTube demonstration of a spinning top product, which shows how it can be used to create simple animations and patterns.

www.youtube.com/watch?v=PipHtumoiL0

YouTube footage of violinist Nigel Kennedy performing Vivaldi's The Four Seasons. Note that the violinists do not refer to sheet music, whereas other members of the orchestra do.

www.youtube.com/watch?v=CHBsFOI-SnA

YouTube footage of Evelyn Glennie, a Scottish virtuoso percussionist, who has been profoundly deaf since the age of 12.

---